SATISFIED CLIENTS

SEV operates under BorneoGuide. This eco lodge located at Sumbiling Lama in the Temburong district was built in 2008 with the aims of sustainability, community engagement, education and in the long run, achieve economic development. It is also one of the many few "glamping" spots in Borneo Island, catering to like minded tourists with added features such as waterfall activities and nature trekking to the Ulu Temburong National Park. In 2017, SEV was dubbed as one of the top 3 places to visit in Brunei by Lonely Planet.

TESTIMONIALS

"Great tour guide and activities to the rain forest. The food was awesome and delicious. I had great inspiration from the owner on how he built up the village. Nice experience overall, recommended to come here if you come to Borneo."

- Yann Nguyen, Vietnam (TripAdvisor, 2017)

"We organised a tour to visit the region through Borneo Guide and were extremely impressed with their service. Sumbiling Ecovillage was cool... We were the only people staying there so we had the place to ourselves. The chef went out of his way to make us comfortable. It is an ideal spot to relax near the river or to explore the forest."

- Nasreen Peer, Mozambique (TripAdvisor, 2017)

PAST & FUTURE

Founder Leslie Chiang, passionate in preservation has been involved in ecotourism for the past 20 years. He spent 10 years of his earlier career working in travel agencies and developed his own ecotourism project while he subsequently created BorneoGuide as the company's product brand.

The company has been listed in Lonely Planet and Trip Advisors under eco-tourism areound Borneo. Since 2000, over 30,000 tourists have used their services.

BorneoGuide is on the current expansion. In 2011, Sumbiling Eco Village (SEV) is operating under 21 staff members; 9 based in SEV who are locals living in the Sumbiling Lama Village, the others are based in the capital.

In line with the initiative to deliver the Wawasan 2035 (Vision 2035) of Brunei to provide skilled labour and combat unemployment, the company has recently opened its doors to the i-Ready Apprenticeship program and also work from attachment students from higher institutes around Brunei.
